

Addressing the Genuine Student Criterion

1. Give details of your current circumstances. This includes ties to family, community, employment and economic circumstances.

Your statement must include the following:

- Family composition - members of the family, description of any jobs / businesses and siblings' occupations.
- Any ties to the community.
- A brief description of the family's liquid and immovable assets.
- Details of your employment (if any) – name of the company, nature of operations, position, salary, size of the company, duration of the employment.
- Address any gaps in employment or education.
- Circumstances around mandatory military service commitments or civil unrest in the country (if applicable).

My name is XXX, born on XXX in XXX, Nepal. I come from a supportive family—my father, XXX, works full-time, and my mother, XXX, runs a small business. Together, they earn an annual income of XXX and own property worth XXX. To support my education, they have also secured an educational loan of XXX from XXX. Inspired by my mother's ability to manage business finances, I developed a strong interest in accounting. I pursued management studies in high school and am now enrolled in the Bachelor of Accounting at XXX. This program will help me build expertise in financial reporting, auditing, taxation, and budgeting. My goal is to become a qualified accountant and use my skills to support business development in Nepal. I have strong family and community ties, and I am committed to returning home after completing my studies.

2. Explain why you wish to study this course in Australia with XXX. This must also explain your understanding of the requirements of the intended course and studying and living in Australia.

Your statement must include the following:

- Which countries did you compare and why you chose Australia as your study destination.
- What course options did you research in Australia.
- Demonstrate your understanding of the intended course, what you expect to learn and what aspects of the course interest you the most.
- Reasons for not doing a similar course in your home country.

- What provider options did you compare in Australia and reasons for choosing XXX
- Brief description of the campus and awareness of the location.
- Planned living arrangements in Australia including rental costs, accommodation type, arrangements for travel to-and-from campus. If living with a relative, clearly state distance from the campus, type of accommodation, family composition of the relatives, whether sharing any rent.
- Brief explanation of your funding options.

I chose Australia over countries like the UK and Canada due to its high-quality, practical education, affordability, and safety. I explored various Australian universities and found XXX ideal for studying accounting. XXX Bachelor of Accounting is accredited by XXX Australia and CA ANZ, with subjects like auditing, taxation, ethics, and data analysis, and includes work-integrated learning—unlike Nepal’s theory-focused programs. I compared providers like XXX and XXX but chose XXX for its industry-focused curriculum, affordable fees, and strong graduate outcomes. XXX XXX campus is centrally located with modern facilities and excellent public transport. I plan to rent shared accommodation near the campus, with estimated monthly costs around XXX. Daily commuting will be via tram or train. This degree will equip me with practical skills to manage and expand our family business in Nepal upon return, contributing to our economy.

3. Explain how completing the course will be of benefit to you.

Your statement must include the below:

- Is the course consistent with your current level of education.
- Explain how the course will assist you to obtain employment or improve employment prospects in your home country or another country.
- Is the course relevant to past or proposed future employment in your home country or another country. If the intended course is unrelated to previous studies or at the same level as your previous studies, then explain reasons for your choice.
- Explain expected salary and other benefits in your home country or another country obtained with the qualifications from the proposed course of study.

Bachelor of Accounting at XXX aligns with my academic background in management and accounting. It will build on my existing knowledge while equipping me with globally relevant skills in auditing, financial reporting, business law, and management accounting. This qualification is highly relevant to my career goals in Nepal, where I aim to work in growth-oriented companies like XXX or XXX Nepal. I also plan to help expand our family business. In Nepal, entry-level accountant roles offer salaries between NPR 58,000–88,000 monthly XXX with significant growth potential. Despite global opportunities, I am committed to returning home, where my Australian qualification will provide a competitive edge. The course enhances both technical and professional skills, making me job-ready in a rapidly evolving business environment. With an investment of AUD 150,000, I expect to recover costs within 4–5 years through improved employment prospects and contributions to my family business.

4. Give details of any other relevant information you would like to include.

Your statement must include the below:

- Please include your and your spouse's (if applicable) details of all immigration history (including Australia and other countries). This will include details of all successful and/or unsuccessful visa applications, any visa cancellations, any deportations, any attempts of seeking asylum or any other immigration history. Please address concerns in case of adverse immigration history.
- If you have relative(s) in Australia – provide their location, type of visa, profession, type of relation (sister, uncle, cousin, etc.).
- Any other information that may be of relevance.

I am a genuine, goal-driven student with no history of visa refusals, cancellations, or immigration issues for any country, including Australia. None of my relative are in Australia.
