

Addressing the Genuine Student Criterion

1. Please provide details of your current circumstances, including ties to family, community, employment and economic circumstances, and address any academic or professional gap of more than six months.
 - Briefly introduce yourself and your current situation
 - Explain your family situation, including their economic status
 - Include incentives to return such as assets, family business, land etc.

My name is XXX, and from XXX, XXX, Nepal. I completed my Grade XII in August 2024 and have chosen to pursue a Bachelor of Business program at the XXX in Australia, which aligns perfectly with my academic interests and career goals. My mother and my sister are going to support me, with an annual income of XXX has been incredibly supportive of my decision to study abroad. They have secured an education loan of XXX to help cover my tuition and living expenses. In addition, we have saving to further support my higher education journey. Our family enjoys financial stability, with inherited assets.

I am deeply grateful for my family's emotional and financial support, which plays a crucial role in my ability to pursue this opportunity. Upon completing my studies, I am committed to returning to Nepal, contributing to its development, and honoring my family's sacrifices.

2. Explain why you are not studying this course in your home country
 - Why Australia/ XXX) over other options
 - Demonstrate your understanding of the course
 - Demonstrate your understanding of living in Australia (costs, etc.)
 - Provide study and employment history and explain how your chosen course relates/builds on this

I chose to study abroad to explore better educational opportunities, and I selected Australia for its welcoming environment, high-quality education, diverse culture, and safe surroundings. XXX Bachelor of Business program, majoring in Human Resource Management, aligns perfectly with my academic and career aspirations. My interest in business developed from observing my mother manages our family business, which inspired me to expand our business both nationally and internationally. This program will equip me with the necessary skills to lead teams effectively and foster positive workplace environments. The curriculum covers essential subjects such as Managing Human Resources, Managing Workplace Relations, Accounting Principles, Marketing Essentials, and Business Law, offering a balanced mix of core units, specializations, electives, and practical experience. For accommodation, I will be staying with my sister at XXX, which is conveniently located just 30-40 minutes away by train from the university.

3. Detail how this course will assist you to achieve your goals/give you advantages in the job market.
 - Explain you career goal – job type, companies/organizations you aim to work for, expected salary (based on research)
 - Demonstrate how you expect to get a return on your investment (show cost, time to recover)

In Nepal, many aspiring entrepreneurs lack a strong understanding of Human Resource Management, limiting their businesses' global growth. However, there is growing awareness of its importance, leading to an increasing demand for Human Resource Managers. After completing my studies, I aim to work as an HR Manager in organizations like XXX, XXX, XXX, XXX, and banks such as XXX and XXX. At the entry level, I can expect a salary between NPR 55k and 114k per month XXX, with potential for higher earnings as I gain experience. I plan to recover my educational investment within 4-5 years and pursue higher positions with additional incentives and bonuses. The support of my family and friends will keep me motivated throughout this journey.

4. Please provide any other relevant information that demonstrates that you are a genuine student. For more information, please refer to Ministerial Direction No. 106

I am considering a XXX course to enhance my career in business management or entrepreneurship. Despite the costs, I believe the quality education, networking opportunities, and career advancement will be valuable. However, as the eldest son, my priority is to return home after my studies to support my mother, brother, and family assets. I plan to apply my skills to develop my mother's business and contribute to my home country's economy and society. While Australia offers higher earnings, my home country's lower cost of living and strong personal connections make it my preferred long-term destination. The expertise gained abroad will help me capitalize on local growth opportunities. Additionally, I have no prior immigration history.