

Addressing the Genuine Student Criterion

1. Please provide details of your current circumstances, including ties to family, community, employment and economic circumstances, and address any academic or professional gap of more than six months.
 - Briefly introduce yourself and your current situation
 - Explain your family situation, including their economic status
 - Include incentives to return such as assets, family business, land etc.
 - Address any study/employment gap

My name is XXX, residing in XXX, XXX, XXX, Nepal, with my parents and grandfather. My father owns XXX and XXX, along with rental land, while my mother works at XXX, and my grandfather is a retired Indian Army member. Our family has stable finances, with a total income of around XXX, assets valued at approximately XXX, savings of XXX, and an education loan of XXX from Nepal XXX. I completed Grade 12 in management in August 2024 and have since focused on studying abroad. I applied for an offer letter on January 7, 2025, and received it the next day. With no significant study or employment gaps, I plan to return to Nepal after my studies to contribute to the criminal justice and community welfare sectors, leveraging my family's strong financial and business foundation.

2. Explain why you are not studying this course in your home country
 - Why Australia/ XXX over other options
 - Demonstrate your understanding of the course
 - Demonstrate your understanding of living in Australia (costs, etc.)
 - Provide study and employment history and explain how your chosen course relates/builds on this

Nepal lacks globally recognized, practical, and research-driven programs in criminal justice and community welfare. I chose Australia for its high-quality education, multicultural environment, and strong industry engagement. XXX offers a Bachelor of Criminal and Community Justice, aligning with my career goals in human rights, community services, and justice administration. I selected XXX over XXX and XXX due to its affordability, industry connections, and hands-on learning. XXX focuses more on theory and research, while XXX curriculum is broader but lacks direct community engagement. XXX internships and work-integrated learning will equip me with practical skills in crime prevention and justice administration. I plan to live near XXX, XXX, in shared accommodation costing XXX per week. With accessible public transport and an estimated annual expense of AUD 29,710. I am financially prepared for my studies and living arrangements.

Explain how completing the course will be of benefit to you. Identify specific positions you plan to apply for, employers, and your expected salary. Demonstrate how you expect to get your return on investment.

- Detail how this course will assist you to achieve your goals/give you advantages in the job market

- Explain your career goal – job type, companies/organizations you aim to work for, expected salary (based on research)
- Demonstrate how you expect to get a return on your investment (show costing, time to recover)

The Bachelor of Criminal and Community Justice at XXX will equip me with the expertise needed to address criminal justice challenges and work with marginalized communities. My career goal is to work with XXX, XXX, and government agencies such as XXX, XXX, XXX, and XXX. Based on research, criminal justice professionals in Nepal earn between NPR 60,000 to NPR 100,000 per month in entry-level positions, with opportunities for advancement. The estimated total investment for my education, including tuition and living expenses, is approximately AUD 150,000. With potential earnings in Nepal, I anticipate recovering this investment within 5-6 years.

3. Please provide any other relevant information that demonstrates that you are a genuine student.

I am committed to pursuing higher education in criminal justice and community welfare to address pressing social issues in Nepal. My research on XXX curriculum, career pathways, and the cost of living confirms that this course aligns with my career aspirations. My strong academic background, unwavering family support, and clear career vision demonstrate my genuine intent to study in Australia and return to Nepal to contribute to the justice system and community development. Furthermore, I have no prior immigration history, reinforcing my genuine student status and commitment to returning after completing my studies.
