

Addressing the Genuine Student Criterion

1. Give details of your current circumstances. This includes ties to family, community, employment and economic circumstances.

Your statement must include the following:

- Family composition - members of the family, description of any jobs / businesses and siblings' occupations.
- Any ties to the community.
- A brief description of the family's liquid and immovable assets.
- Details of your employment (if any) – name of the company, nature of operations, position, salary, size of the company, duration of the employment.
- Address any gaps in employment or education.
- Circumstances around mandatory military service commitments or civil unrest in the country (if applicable).

My name is XXX, born on XXX in XXX, Nepal. I come from a close-knit family of three. My father, XXX, is engaged in business, while my mother, XXX, manages a small business and generates additional income through house rentals. Their combined annual income is XXX. Our family owns immovable property and, to support my higher education, my parents have also taken an education loan of XXX from XXX. I have no siblings working abroad, and our family maintains strong social and cultural ties to the community in Chitwan. At present, I am preparing to pursue a Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Tourism and Hospitality Leadership at XXX. This program builds on my previous academic background and aligns with my long-term career goals in the tourism and hospitality industry.

2. Explain why you wish to study this course in Australia with XXX. This must also explain your understanding of the requirements of the intended course and studying and living in Australia.

Your statement must include the following:

- Which countries did you compare and why you chose Australia as your study destination.
- What course options did you research in Australia.
- Demonstrate your understanding of the intended course, what you expect to learn and

- what aspects of the course interest you the most.
- Reasons for not doing a similar course in your home country.
- What provider options did you compare in Australia and reasons for choosing XXX specifically.
- Brief description of the campus and awareness of the location.
- Planned living arrangements in Australia including rental costs, accommodation type, arrangements for travel to-and-from campus. If living with a relative, clearly state distance from the campus, type of accommodation, family composition of the relatives, whether sharing any rent.
- Brief explanation of your funding options.

I chose Australia for my MBA in Tourism and Hospitality Leadership because it offers practical, industry-focused education in a multicultural setting. Compared to countries like Canada, the UK, and the USA, Australia stood out to me for its strong reputation in hospitality studies, safe environment, and affordability. In Nepal, XXX programs in this field are limited and mainly theory-based, which pushed me to explore options abroad. While researching, I looked at universities such as XXX and XXX, but XXX felt like the best fit. What attracted me most is XXX supportive learning culture, smaller class sizes, and strong industry links that ensure students graduate with real-world skills. The MBA program's focus on leadership, tourism policy, and strategic management directly matches my career goals, and I am particularly excited about the case studies and industry projects. I plan to study at the Sydney campus and live in a shared apartment nearby, with weekly costs of around XXX.

3. Explain how completing the course will be of benefit to you.

Your statement must include the below:

- Is the course consistent with your current level of education.
- Explain how the course will assist you to obtain employment or improve employment prospects in your home country or another country.
- Is the course relevant to past or proposed future employment in your home country or another country. If the intended course is unrelated to previous studies or at the same level as your previous studies, then explain reasons for your choice.

- Explain expected salary and other benefits in your home country or another country obtained with the qualifications from the proposed course of study.

Completing the Master of Business (Tourism & Hospitality Leadership) will be highly beneficial for my career. The course is consistent with my bachelor's degree and my professional experience in Food & Beverage Services, where I developed practical hospitality skills. It will provide me with advanced knowledge in leadership, hotel operations, and sustainable tourism, which are essential to succeed in today's global hospitality sector. This qualification will enhance my career prospects in Nepal, where international hotel xxx, xxx, xxx and xxx, xxx and xxx rapidly expanding. The program is directly relevant to my past work experience and future goal of progressing into managerial roles such as Food & Beverage Manager or Front Office Manager. With this degree, I can expect a salary of NPR 17 Lakh-27 Lakh per year in Nepal compared to NPR 6 Lakh- 9 Lakh with local qualifications (xxx). This international exposure will also prepare me to establish my own hospitality business in the long run.

4. Give details of any other relevant information you would like to include.

Your statement must include the below:

- Please include your and your spouse's (if applicable) details of all immigration history (including Australia and other countries). This will include details of all successful and/or unsuccessful visa applications, any visa cancellations, any deportations, any attempts of seeking asylum or any other immigration history. Please address concerns in case of adverse immigration history.
- If you have relative(s) in Australia – provide their location, type of visa, profession, type of relation (sister, uncle, cousin, etc.).
- Any other information that may be of relevance.

I have never had any adverse immigration history. I have not been deported, refused a visa, or sought asylum in Australia or any other country. I have only applied for an Australian student visa, and this is my first application. I have no spouse or dependents accompanying me, so there are no additional immigration records to declare on their behalf.

Furthermore, I do not have any relatives living in Australia, nor do I have family members holding any type of Australian visa. My primary purpose in applying for the Master of Business Administration (Tourism & Hospitality Leadership) at xxx is solely to gain quality international education and exposure that will support my professional career in Nepal.

I am fully committed to complying with all visa conditions and Australian laws during my stay and will return to Nepal upon completion of my studies to contribute to my country's tourism and hospitality industry.
